

Sea for yourself, it s a classic

JOIN Duncan Rotherford and other crew members for a sailor's-eye-view on the internet of SA's premier ocean race, the Lexus Bluewater Classic.

Held late last month for the 58th time, it is a race of 156 nautical miles starting in Adelaide and finishing in picturesque Port Lincoln.

AdelaideNow photographer Dylan Coker sailed with Team Lexus, a Sydney 38 one-design yacht with distinctive black-and-white livery skippered and co-owned by former America's Cup sailor and Sydney-to-Hobart winner James Mayo.

This year Team Lexus competed for the first time in the classic, finishing a creditable fourth. Click on website news.com.au/adelaidenow to see more of Lexus's journey to Port Lincoln.

The classic's winners were:

RACING DIVISION - Line honours: Skandia 17h37m51s. Overall handicap winner: Full Bore 22:53:33.

MULTI-HULL DIVISION - Line honours: Raw To The Core 17:15:47. Overall handicap winner: Bush Ranger 20:27:6.

CRUISING DIVISION - Line honours: Sea Hawk 27:54:35. Overall handicap winner: Miss Saigon 29:34:48.

